

DEVELOPMENT AID REQUEST

The key approach being taken through delivering development aid through case reporting is to mobilize local citizens, and to develop an integrated central database capable of recording earlier information and knowledge on the ground according to the economic, social and environmental frustrations and problems local citizens are facing each day and to make these universally accessible via a central database and useful to development organizations and local and national responsible bodies in order to highlight and alleviate the problems at a community level to reach Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Our organization can provide development agencies, social entrepreneurs, funding agencies, banks, local government, etc. with case studies for any of the support requests shown in the table of summary requests for development aid we have received in our database.

4 PEPA's Malnourished children project

MAP OF THE AREA/ NORTH KIVU

4.1 Background of the project

This project will draw young people and their mentality reintegrated into life stuffed with tools and techniques for production support

Support project for refugee and abandoned children aims to support children with learning difficulties in North Kivu Province- Goma/Democratic Republic of Congo. Through this project, PEPA NGO provides seventy (70) of children, selected from 212 children in difficult conditions, education, guidance and psycho-social and moral information and training in various fields. Note that the 100 selected children are in displaced refugee camps around Goma and other orphans from various places of North Kivu, fed and clothed in the shelter initially by contributions from members of PEPA.

The project will try to solve the serious problem of poverty, especially under education, by sending the children to various schools of Goma, to support the improvement of the state of low levels of education, high rates of school dropout and failure.

According to a sample survey of 91 survived children on the problems and needs of abandoned and/or refugee children in North Kivu, 22.52 % (25) are refugees, 72.6% (66) are orphans or have just one parent or are street abandoned children, mainly due to HIV - AIDS and war that ravaged the Great Lakes countries.

Part of the refugee children lives with families but has no family relationship with them (they have their own children or children in their care, sometimes they are housing and feeding to total of 12 children), other children are under responsibility of their elders; these children become heads of families at a very young age.

This extreme poverty has a negative impact on the education and the social lives of these children. Others combine school with small income activities for their and their families's survival, such as selling peanuts, eggs, etc. to passersby on the road or in bars, with all the risks to their physical and mental health and with the risk of failure and dropping out of school. Many of these children may not have one meal a day.

This project is a response to the growing number of cultural and economic problems which African children are facing, especially orphans and refugee children in Congo, such as pregnancies, induced abortions among teenagers, unemployment, inadequate skills for the workplace, poverty, street children, child prostitution, always rising tide of sexually transmitted diseases including AIDS, increased drug use among children and youth, school dropouts, etc.

The NGO PEPA believes, it is time to play more active role in the growth and development of children by addressing these challenges.

4.2 Project objectives of PEPA

It's been stated these kind of objectives to alleviate the problems of malnourished, refugee/displaced children, orphans and other vulnerable children living in D. R. C.:

- 1. Overall objective:
 - reduce vagrancy and improve the nutritional, socio-economic and educational quality of life of children, Refugee Children, Orphans and other Vulnerable children (RCOV) in Goma/D. R. C.
- 2. Specific Objective:
 - promote access to some of these RCOV to live in the province of North Kivu, care and education means sufficient
 - supervise and care for children requiring special protection

4.3 Duration

This project lasts six months, renewable by the necessities of the moment.

- Identification and selection of beneficiaries among children (most vulnerable refugees, orphans under the responsibility of elders or under the responsibility of families without kinship, fatherless or motherless children, etc.)
- Food distribution once a month,
- Distribution of school supplies at the beginning of each year,
- Animation sessions and information once a month at each distribution,

- Evaluation and biannual report to the General Assembly members

4.6 Expected results of the project

This project attend to a social profitability. In fact, a month after the start of the project each child feels in the bath of life. We expect the following results:

- Reduction and / or prevention of crime and other social vices,
- At the end of each year an increasing number of children with learning difficulties are supported by education trough established schools, consistent and useful information and advice including HIV / AIDS and income-generating activities,
- Guarantee of social reintegration through accompanying measures relating thereto,
- Improvement of the socio-economic level of refugee families by training - entertainment - education and support their income generating activities (IGAs) allowing the flow of a sustainable and autonomous management of their children (education and basic health care)

4.7 Viabilities of the project

The viability of this project is indisputable. To ensure profitability, our project activities will be achieved through the appropriation of profit (direct and indirect beneficiaries). Children in difficulties will be grouped into units of protection, advocacy, legal assistance, psycho-social rehabilitation and socio-economic support.

- Economic viability:
 - ❖ awareness, leadership, training and capacity-generating activities revenues should allow parents to eventually have sufficient income to enable them not only to provide schooling and basic needs of their children but also to help other family members who are experiencing the same problems of education and access to basic health care.
- Organizational Viability:
 - ❖ develop a greater synergy through multiple collaborations with other actors working in the field of management - protection and socio-professional reintegration of children, the project aims to ensure the sustainability of its activities beyond timeline funding, thereby ensuring ownership of activities.
